GENERAL SECRETARY. 19 OCT. 1937

M. Venkatesa Iyengar, Esq., M.A.,
General Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
BANGALORE.

SIR,

Re. transferring resumed inam lands of Prabhiahna Mutt at Vadigenahalli, Devanhalli Taluk, to Sri Rudra Devaru Temple of the same place.

I have the honor to forward herewith copy of letter No.C3-481/37 dated 21-9-1937 from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District together with the file of correspondence connected with the case, and to state as follows:-

Prabhiahna Mutt at Vadigenahalli, Devanhalli Taluk, endowed with inam lands, as per details noted in the margin, is a Muzrai institution and it was declared as defunct by the Deputy Commissioner and he recommended the transfer of the inam lands to Sri Chennakesava-swami temple of the same place, which is also a Muzrai institution.

	S.No.	Kind.	Extent. A.	G.	Assessment. Rs	a.	p.
Vadigenahalli	87	wet	0	24	4	8	0
Hardapur	14	Garden	0	34	2	8	0
	47	Dry	5	21	12	0	0

The vahivatdar of the Mutt, Sidaalingiah, when he came to know of the resumption of the Mutt lands, presented a petition to this office, contending that the resumed inam lands of a Lingayet Mutt should not be granted to a Vaishnava temple and prayed that they may be granted to Sri Rudradevaru temple of the same place, which is a Lingayet institution.

This petition was forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner, for opinion. He now recommends that the inam lands may be granted to Sri Rudra-devaru temple, which is a non-Muzrai institution having an annual income of Rs130 from private endowments.

As there is no chance of reviving the Mutt and as Sri Rudra.. temple is reported to be popular, the recommendation of the Deputy Commissioner to transfer the inam lands to Sri Rudradevaru temple may be approved.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. N. Ramaluru

tter No.C3-481/36-37 dated 21-9-37 from the Deputy Commissioner, ɔre District, to the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

With reference to your letter No.C.258/35-36 dated 19-7-1937 regarding the transfer of inam lands of Prabhiahna Mutt at V digenahalli, Devanahalli Taluk, I have the honor to state that the Rudradevaru referred to in the appeal petition of Mr. Siddalingaiya is reported to be a different institution from the Veerɔbhadradevaru shown as a Muzrai institution in the Quit Rent Register.

It is further reported that the Rudradevaru temple is a private institution which is in the enjoyment of some private endowments yielding an annual income of about ₹ 130 and that it is a very popular institution.

The Amildar and the Sub Division Officer have recommended that the inam lands of the defunct Mutt may be kindly ordered to be transferred to this institution and not to the Sri Chennakesavaswamy temple at Vadigenahalli, as originally recommended.

Agreeing with the recommendation of the Amildar and the Sub Division Officer, I am of opinion that the inam lands of the defunct Mutt may be transferred to Rudradevaru temple.

After the transfer of the inam lands to the temple, it becomes a minor Muzrai institution and a regular scale of income and expenditure will be fixed for observance in it and a Committee of Dharmadarsis will also be appointed to supervise its affairs.

The connected records are herewith enclosed.
